

I believe it is grossly unfair when the majority of the worlds airline Captains over age 60, are allowed to fly into U.S. Airspace (with some restrictions)and, a U.S. Citizen/Ailine Captain cannot!

This is blatant government age discrimination at its worst, honoring the worlds experience and requests, while denying their own citizens.